

Empower LATAM UK

Safeguarding policy statement.

March 2024

The purpose and scope of this policy statement

Empower LATAM UK believe that all young people of Latin American heritage in the UK deserve a fair chance to succeed in life. There exist barriers that can hold back many people in this group and our work provides the services and support that enables them to overcome these. As we work with young people (between the ages of 14-30), we as a charity believe that no one should ever experience abuse of any kind. We have a responsibility to safeguard, protect and promote the welfare of all children, young people, and vulnerable adults. Anyone working with Empower LATAM UK has a duty of care to make sure children, young people and vulnerable adults are kept safe from harm, abuse, and neglect and to report concerns about their safety or welfare. We also have a responsibility to ensure that all our volunteers work in a safe environment, free from any form of harassment, bullying, and/or discrimination of any kind. We are committed to acting in a way that protects these groups of people.

The purpose of this policy statement is:

- to protect children and young people who receive Empower LATAM UK's services from harm. This includes the children of adults who use our services
- to provide staff and volunteers, as well as children and young people and their families, with the overarching principles that guide our approach to child protection.

This policy applies to anyone working on behalf of Empower LATAM UK, including senior managers and the board of trustees, paid staff, volunteers, sessional workers, agency staff and students.

We believe that:

- children and young people should never experience abuse of any kind
- we have a responsibility to promote the welfare of all children and young people, to keep them safe and to practise in a way that protects them.

We recognise that:

- the welfare of children is paramount in all the work we do and in all the decisions we take
 - working in partnership with children, young people, their parents, carers and other agencies is essential in promoting young people's welfare
 - all children, regardless of age, disability, gender reassignment, race, religion or belief, sex, or sexual orientation have an equal right to protection from all types of harm or abuse
 - some children are additionally vulnerable because of the impact of previous experiences, their level of dependency, communication needs or other issues
 - extra safeguards may be needed to keep children who are additionally vulnerable safe from abuse.

 - safeguarding LGBTQ+ children and young people
 - safeguarding children with special educational needs and disabilities (SEND).

We will seek to keep children and young people safe by:

- valuing, listening to and respecting them
- appointing a nominated child protection lead for children and young people, a deputy and a lead trustee/board member for safeguarding
- adopting child protection and safeguarding best practice through our policies, procedures and code of conduct for staff and volunteers
- developing and implementing an effective online safety policy and related procedures
- providing effective management for staff and volunteers through supervision, support, training and quality assurance measures so that all staff and volunteers know about and follow our policies, procedures and behaviour codes confidently and competently

- recruiting and selecting staff and volunteers safely, ensuring all necessary checks are made
- recording and storing and using information professionally and securely, in line with data protection legislation and guidance [more information about this is available from the Information Commissioner's Office: ico.org.uk/for-organisations]
- sharing information about safeguarding and good practice with children and their families via leaflets, posters, group work and one-to-one discussions
- making sure that children, young people and their families know where to go for help if they have a concern
- using our safeguarding and child protection procedures to share concerns and relevant information with agencies who need to know, and involving children, young people, parents, families and carers appropriately
- using our procedures to manage any allegations against staff and volunteers appropriately
- creating and maintaining an anti-bullying environment and ensuring that we have a policy and procedure to help us deal effectively with any bullying that does arise
- ensuring that we have effective complaints and whistleblowing measures in place
- ensuring that we provide a safe physical environment for our children, young people, staff and volunteers, by applying health and safety measures in accordance with the law and regulatory guidance
- building a safeguarding culture where staff and volunteers, children, young people and their families, treat each other with respect and are comfortable about sharing concerns.
